

TRUE HOSPITALITY IS PASTOR'S THEME

Dr. Radcliffe Says Dinners in Washington Are Often Parody Upon Real Welcome.

Hospitality is the exemplification of true Christianity as the Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe's sermon last night at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church. Dr. Radcliffe showed that sham hospitality could be used as a means to a great many ends, and was in a great many cases so used. That, however, was not true hospitality, but a parody.

"Hospitality in its highest sense, which is the Christian sense, is the true address to the heart. Hospitality does not mean giving of entertainment; lavishly and freely, means giving well, come disinterestedly and without hope of return. The giving of a crust with a hearty welcome is far greater hospitality than the giving of a banquet with hope of political or social reward."

Dr. Radcliffe said he thought there were a great many more dinners in Washington than hospitality; that beautiful tables are frequently counters of exchange where we get because we give; sometimes a ladder for a social climber, sometimes a turnpike where we meet all sorts and conditions of men, and sometimes a battlefield where social and political wars are fought.

"Hell" Is Evangelist's Theme.

"Who Made Hell?" is the question asked the Washington Temple Congregation yesterday afternoon by Evangelist F. F. Cook, of Detroit, who preached the weekly sermon. Dr. Cook answered the question himself, saying that hell is a human creation, absolutely and was not created until the actions of man made such a place necessary.

"Father Adam, the first man," said Mr. Cook, "was the one who made the creation of hell necessary by his transgression of the law of the Creator with his spouse, Mother Eve."

The evangelist discussed the various meanings of the words "Sheol," "Hades," and "Gehenna," all of which he declared mean substantially the same thing, hell. Gehenna, however, means that hell from which no one can leave, while Sheol and Hades mean that hell in which souls sleep until the second coming of Christ.

The Rev. George Vargis, S. J., officiated yesterday at the close of the retreat for women at St. Anthony's Church. More than 4,000 women attended the early masses and received holy communion. Father Fargis formally terminated the retreat with the papal benediction.

Mission for Men Begun.

At 7:30 p. m. yesterday a mission for men in St. Anthony's was begun with a sermon and outline of services for the week. Services will be held at 8 and 7 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. The retreat will be conducted by the Rev. Joseph Murry, S. J., president of St. Peter's College, Jersey City.

The Rev. Thomas D. Williams preached the third of the series of sermons on "The Love of God" last night in St. Anthony's Church. The theme was selected for the whole series of Lenten services, and one sermon will be delivered each Sunday. St. Anthony's sanctuary choir of forty boys gave a special musical service. The boys received their fundamental training from Father Williams, who intends having the training completed by a special teacher from the Apostolic mission house.

The Rt. Rev. Alfred Harding, bishop of Washington, confirmed two classes of applicants for membership into the Episcopal church. The first class of forty was confirmed in St. Stephen's Church at the morning service. In the evening he performed the rite of confirmation in the Redeemer and confirmed a large class of that parish.

Southern Entertainers Sing Here This Week

"Mars" Polk Miller and Col. Tom Booker, of Amelia County, Va., "Igad, sub, will give an entertainment in Odd Fellows Hall next Friday and Saturday in which the old Confederates will sing ante-bellum negro songs accompanied by banjos, and a quartet of tobacco factory negroes will sing just as they did in the Richmond factories while making "plug."

Polk Miller has been known as an entertainer for many years, not Colonel Booker is new to Washington, and in him there is a flavor of the ante-bellum which is rapidly fading, since he was a soldier. Colonel Booker has strummed a banjo, and although he is well into the seventies now, his fingers are as nimble as ever, and the negro melodies roll off the strings as if they were inspired.

Among the songs to be sung by "Mars" Polk and Colonel Tom are "Old Dan Tucker," "I'm Going Down to Richmond to Sell My Tobacco, Dar," "I Wouldn't Marry a City Gal," "Mourner," and "Jim Crack Corn, I Don't Care."

Two Entertainments For Blind This Week

Blind folks of Washington will have two opportunities of entertainment this week at the Library of Congress. Tomorrow afternoon, at 2:30, Edward P. Dickinson will entertain the blind and their friends with an interesting singing. On Friday, at 8 p. m., a musical will be given by a quartet consisting of Mrs. George Metcalf, soprano; Miss Sylvia Metcalf, mezzo soprano; Master DeFour Brown, tenor, and Mrs. G. D. Brown, accompanist.

At these entertainments seats will be reserved for the blind and their escorts. All the remaining space is freely open to the public up to the capacity of the room.

JUNIOR MECHANICS HOLD CELEBRATION

Patriotic Services in Anacostia Church Are Largely Attended. Editorial on Liquor Question in The Times Highly Praised.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU. ANACOSTIA, D. C., FEB. 24. With its officers leading, Anacostia Council, No. 16, Junior Order of United American Mechanics marched into the flag-draped auditorium of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Anacostia last night and took part in a patriotic service. Two hundred members of the order, occupied central seats in the church. With another audience in the rear, the capacity of the edifice was tested.

The singing of "The Star-Spangled Banner," with Mrs. John Fort as soloist, opened the program. The choir, directed by Daniel C. Smithson, assisted and the audience joined in the song. Preliminary to the sermon, which was delivered by the Rev. Samuel W. Radcliffe, the pastor, there was a sketch by him for the benefit particularly of the men of the order, some of the crises faced by the American nation, followed by an outline of the evils which are being met.

Touching upon the liquor question, the Rev. Mr. Radcliffe referred in strong terms to the evils of the liquor traffic. He said that the liquor traffic was a national disgrace, and that the American people were being led astray by the liquor traffic.

Judge W. F. Norris, of the Department of Justice, was the principal speaker last night at the celebration of the first anniversary of the Men's Club in the Congress Heights M. E. Church. His topic was "The Book of the Nations." He explained the book of Genesis, the Buddhist book of Vedas, the Koran of the Mohammedans, and the Bible of the Christians.

President W. P. Ballard, of the Men's Club, welcomed the audience, after which Secretary Andrew T. McNamara entered upon a review of the history of the organization. Secretary McNamara named E. H. Kinsey as the dean of the club at the age of sixty-six years; the youngest member, he said, is Lester Stivers, sixteen years old.

The occupations of the members were named over, more than a dozen different callings being included. The club has forty-two members. The Rev. Merritt Earl told of the worth of the club to the church.

Work is going ahead rapidly on the three steel water towers which will be erected in connection with the establishment of the District pumping station at Minnesota avenue and Eighteenth street. Although a protest was registered at the Municipal building by a committee of citizens from Randle Highlands against the erection of the water tower on the grounds of the Randle Highlands School, there is no probability of another site being secured.

The District officials did not choose the site of the Congress Heights School.

Sore Throat Don'ts

When the children have sore throat, don't blister their necks with lamp oil. Don't torture them with a hot compress. Don't wrap them in meat, wrapped about the neck. Don't imagine there is medical virtue in an old sock or piece of red flannel. Don't believe superstitious remedies.

A sore throat is a serious matter and is not to be healed by such make-believe remedies. The use of such methods is simply putting the patient to needless torture. Use a little sore throat wisdom and give them WONSLAY and the throat will heal quickly.

Question of Submitting Issue to Voters May Be Raised at Democratic Primaries.

HYATTSVILLE, Md., Feb. 24.—According to current rumor the question of whether the voters are to be given the chance to decide if intoxicating liquors shall be sold in Prince George county is likely to be injected into the contest between the Democratic and Republican primaries next summer. It is reported that the element opposed to the present organization will declare in favor of candidates for the State Legislature pledged to support a bill submitting the question to the people. It is said that the candidacy of Joseph Addison, of Bowie district, for the nomination for the house of delegates, announced recently, was for the purpose of injecting the issue of local option into the contest. Addison is said to be in favor of a bill submitting the question to the voters. The result may determine the future course of the anti-organization people in putting a candidate for the State senate and three other candidates for the house of delegates in the field. It is understood that there are several well-known Democratic politicians willing to make the fight on the local option issue, and that at the proper time they will make formal announcement of their intentions.

Paul Green has resigned as secretary-treasurer of the National Athletic Association formed recently among the youth of the Emmanuel P. E. parish, as he expects to leave the city in a short time. Raymond Eno has been elected to the office. The boys will meet tonight in the parish hall for a game of basketball.

Woman's suffrage will have the support of the men from the Brotherhood of the Anacostia M. E. Church when the question is debated next Friday night with the Men's Club of the Congress Heights M. E. Church. The Anacostia Men's Society yesterday named its representatives for the debate. They are Charles Marshall and Frank Dony.

William E. Gilbert, former mayor of Laurel, is building one of the best roads in this county from his large farm, a short distance from that town, to a well-known station on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, a distance of about five miles.

Union Men Will Dance For Benefit of Comrade

An entertainment and dance will be given by the men from the Brotherhood of the National Rifle Armory, under the auspices of the Washington Photo-engravers Union, on February 26, for the benefit of John B. Kroell who, by reason of his work, was so unfortunate as to lose his eyesight about a year ago. The benefit is indorsed by the Central Labor Union.

The entertainment will take the form of a vaudeville show in which the best of the local talent and a number of acts from local theaters will be seen. Several reels of moving pictures will also be shown. At least 1,000 people are expected at the dance to follow.

Mr. Kroell is widely known throughout the city and labor circles of Washington. For a number of years he was employed as a photo-engraver on a local paper here.

Taft Entertains Newspaper Men

President Gives Dinner at White House to Writers He Met in Administration.

President Taft last night entertained in the state dining-room forty newspapermen and others with whom he has come in contact during the greater part of his Administration. Speeches were made by John Temple Graves, J. C. Hemphill, and Henry Hall. Secretary C. D. Hill made a brief address.

Other guests were David S. Barry, Ira E. Bennett, C. K. Berryman, T. W. Brahan, William E. Brigham, Sumner M. Curtis, Robert Douglass, Harry L. Dunlap, Rudolph Foster, Elting A. Fowler, Louis Garthe, John F. Gavit, W. W. Price, James Hay, Jr., Robert D. Hain, George G. Hill, James P. Hornaday, Gus J. Karger, Rudolph Kauffmann, Charles P. Keyser, F. E. Leupp, Thomas F. Logan, John Lorraine, A. Maurice Low, Guy Mason, Jerry M. May, W. O. Messenger, Frank B. Nowes, Theodore W. Noyes, John Nolan, Richard Oulahan, Robert H. Patchin, James B. Reynolds, Major Thomas L. Rhoads, John F. Ryan, Oswald F. Schuette, John S. Shriver, Fred Starck, Major Alfred J. Stoffer, E. C. Snyder, L. W. Strayer, M. F. Tische, Leroy T. Weston, Ernest G. Wicker, Henry L. West, and Arthur Willert.

R. E. White, secretary, has announced the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Hyattsville Building Association, to be held Tuesday evening, March 11, at 8 o'clock in Heptastapha hall. Officers and directors for the ensuing year will be elected.

William E. Gilbert, former mayor of Laurel, is building one of the best roads in this county from his large farm, a short distance from that town, to a well-known station on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, a distance of about five miles.

Mr. Gilbert, who is a practical farmer, has completed a record of the milk given by one of his five-year-old heifers. On February 7, an eight-month-old heifer, and in this time she gave 11,382 pounds of milk. At the rate of eight and one-half pounds to the gallon, she has yielded 1,422 gallons in 29 days, an average of five and one-half pounds per day, and is still giving thirty-nine and one-half pounds per day.

The regular monthly meeting of the mayor and common council will be held tonight in the council chamber in the municipal and fire department building.

All this is due to weak, inactive kidneys. The kidneys are the filters of the blood, and no one can be well and healthy unless the kidneys work properly. It is even more important that the bowels move regularly.

If you suffer with such symptoms do not neglect yourself another day and run the risk of serious complications. Secure an original package of the new discovery, Croxone, which costs but a trifle, and commence its use at once. When you have taken a few doses, you will be surprised how differently you will feel.

Croxone cures the worst cases of kidney, bladder trouble, and rheumatism, because it removes the cause. It cleans out the kidneys, and makes them filter out all the poisonous waste matter and uric acids that lodge in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; soothes, and heals the bladder, and quickly relieves you of all your misery.

You will find Croxone different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It matters not how old you are or how long you have suffered, it is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results.

You can secure an original package of Croxone from any first class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if it fails to give the desired results the very first time you use it.—Adv't.

LECTURES DESCRIBE FAR-OFF COUNTRIES

Y. M. C. A. Members Hear of China and South America at Afternoon Gatherings.

Views of China and South America were given yesterday in two addresses at the Y. M. C. A. by Dr. T. T. Wong, president of the Shanghai Y. M. C. A. and director of the Boxer Indemnity fund for the education of Chinese students in this country, and the Rev. Dr. Charles Wood, pastor of the Church of the Covenant. The first address was made before the Society of Knights of Sir Godfrey, a social and religious secret order in the boys' department, and the second before the men's Sunday afternoon assembly.

Dr. Wong said that football was an ancient Chinese game. As played there, however, the captains of the teams were responsible for victory or defeat, and the winning captain was crowned while the leader of the losing side was flogged, he said.

"Cricket fighting is another popular sport," said Dr. Wong. "A trained cricket often sells for $100 or $150."

Dr. Wong related a number of experiences in South America. He told of the coming of the Y. M. C. A. in South America and of how much influence it has had in that country.

Dr. Wood said that football was an ancient Chinese game. As played there, however, the captains of the teams were responsible for victory or defeat, and the winning captain was crowned while the leader of the losing side was flogged, he said.
